

William Shakespeare's
TWELFTH NIGHT

SCRIPT KIT TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. Director's Script	1 - 53
II. Director Support
- Scene Breakdown	55
The scene breakdown lists each scene's starting and ending point, and the characters that are involved. It also gives a short summary. The scene breakdown is especially helpful while planning rehearsals.
- Casting Suggestions	56
Here you'll find characters listed by number of lines and importance. There are also some suggestions for eliminating or double casting actors.
- Song Suggestions	57
Here you'll find a few songs that work well with the plot of this play. The lyrics to each song are listed. Melodies can be found at www.kidsloveshakespeare.com .
- Costume Suggestions	59
Here you'll find some sketches and ideas for costuming your cast simply with very little sewing required.
- Set Suggestions	62
Here you'll find some ideas about creating a simple, kid made set.
- Staging Suggestions	63
Here you'll find some tips that will help your production rise above the average school play.
III. Teacher Support
- Recommended Book List	65
The book list provides you with both picture books and chapter books to help familiarize your students with Shakespeare as well as the plot of this play.
- Summary for Kids	67
Feel free to use this summary to help introduce the plot of this play to your students. Also, copy it and hand it out to teachers of the classes who will be in your audience. It's especially helpful for your youngest audience members to know the story before watching it performed.
- Photo Permission Form	68
We love to feature (and celebrate) classrooms who are exploring the world of Shakespeare on our website and Facebook page. If you are interested in sharing photos from your classroom with other teachers, please send the Photo Permission Form home with your students, and then return signed forms to us.	